

FAQ FUN RUN

Who is eligible to participate in the Fun Run?

The Fun Run is the non-competitive city run in conjunction with Run Rome The Marathon. The recommended distance to travel independently is about 5 km. Participation is allowed at any age. To participate, it is necessary to read and fully accept the rules in the regulation.

How will the FUN Run take place?

Fun Run will be in physical version (5 km) on Sunday 17 March 2024, with a departure time at around 9:00 from via dei Fori Imperiali. It will finish at the Circo Massimo.

The Fun Run will have a virtual version on Saturday 16 and Sunday 17 March 2024 (48h of time to cover the distance), in an autonomous, widespread and independent form, with respect to any location and choice of time. The Fun Run is to be run over a distance of about 5 km.

REGISTRATION

How can I register?

Registration must be done online, following the instructions on the website www.runromethemarathon.com. If the subscriber has purchased a code from a third party, it is to be used on the site to finalize the registration.

How much does the registration cost?

The bibs of the Fun Run can be purchased through the official website of the event at the following rates:

Individual Children (0-8 years old)

- € 3,00 – only bib and medal if applicable
